

About Valerie

Valerie Horst received an M.F.A. in Historical Performance from Sarah Lawrence College (studies in musicology with Richard Taruskin). She is Director Emerita of Amherst Early Music, Inc., producers of the largest teaching festival of early music in the Western Hemisphere. She is a founding board member of Early Music America, and served a term as president. She was a long-time board member of the American Recorder Society and served as its vice president. She has for many years been Music Director of the Miami chapter of the American Recorder Society. She was a member of the Historical Performance faculty at the Mannes College of Music from 1982 to 2006, and served for several years as the director of the Historical Performance Program there. She is a former member of the Renaissance choir Cappella Nova, and she toured as a recorder player with the New York Chamber Soloists. She is the recipient of the American Recorder Society's 2003 Distinguished Achievement Award, in recognition of her long career of service to the world of early music.

Workshop hosted by Valerie Horst

Saturday
March 24
8:30am thru 4pm

Rochester, NY

About the Music

"If music be the food of love, play on; Give me excess of it..."

Twelfth Night

Discover the beauty of one's fervent love for another set to music...

...and the power of one's passions embroiled in the throes of conflict.

"There's but the twinkling of a star/Between a man of peace and war."

Hudibras, Part II (1664)

Experience the themes of love and war as imagined by the great 15th- & 16th-century composers.

Motets, chansons, dances, mass movements, and more!
